—Care silvers the hair.

—Could postoffice employees have their way there would be a typewriter in every home.

—Lisbon is in high glee, having secured additional mail service by trolley from East Liverpool.

—Income tax reports must be filed by April 1. Don't take any chance on paying the heavy penalty for failure to report.

—Perry Robinson, Youngstown attorney, is now solicitor for the village of Newton Falls at an annual salary of $150. He succeeded Judge Gilbert of Warren.

—Rumors that the Crescent Machine Co. in Leetonia had been sold to a steel company are denied by officials of the company. The concern is a big manufacturer of wood working machinery.

—Miss Hannah Speaker, only sister of attorney C. S. Speaker of Lisbon, died Sunday of acute indigestion. She was a native of Lisbon where her entire life was spent. Funeral services were held afternoon.

—The 300 girl and women employees in the mechanical departments of the Engel Aircraft works at Niles have adopted khaki uniforms with bloomers. The plant which now employs 600 persons will increase its force to 1,500 in the near future.

—There is no standard recipe for "victory bread," the only requirement being that it must contain not more than 80 per cent of wheat flour, the remaining 20 per cent being composed of corn meal or corn flour, rice, potato flour, or other cereals recommended by the Food Administration. "Victory" pies and doughnuts, which contain not less than one-third nonwheat flour, may be sold on wheatless days if the same recipes are used throughout the week.

THE GOSPEL OF THRIFT

That sales of War Savings Stamps have passed the $50,000,000 mark and have been accumulating at the rate of more than $2,000,000 a day is the gratifying news from Washington. These facts constitute substantial evidence that there are millions of intelligent American citizens who are loyally combining saving and thrift with their other patriotic duties.

An appeal has been issued to the 200,000 workers enrolled in the various divisions of the War Savings organization to make an extra effort in the next few weeks to further spread the gospel of thrift to the end that the full financial strength of the nation may be placed behind the military branch of the government. While every endeavor should be enlisted to carry on trade and commerce, it must be borne in mind that in war times unusual actions are demanded to meet the unusual conditions. For instance, there must be no competition with the government for labor and materials.

Again, it is absolutely necessary that every man with a surplus should offer it to those who are financing the great conflict. Following this thought each man, woman and child should endeavor to produce a surplus that may be invested. Its size is of no consequence, because the government will take even a twenty-five cent piece. Every person, without distinction, is in duty bound to this thought to heed the appeal from Washington "to spread the gospel of thrift and savings so that there will be a militant army of savers to put War Savings Certificates and the next Liberty Loan over the top."

DO YOUR LEVEL BEST

Do your level best, boys, always everywhere;

Never mind what others do, you act fair and square.

Duty's call is urgent, and life no empty jest;

Pull yourself together, boys, and to your level best.

Do your level best, boys, whatever your lot may be;

Grinding in the study, or sailing on the sea.

Pea or plough or hammer, or in scarlet tunic dressed,

Pull yourselves together, boys, and do your level best.

Do your level best, boys, all honest work will wear.

Yours is now the springtime; improve the season rare.

Use each precious moment, all trifling ways detest;

Pull yourselves together, boys, and do your level best.

Do your level best, boys, all honest work will tell.

Though the task be irksome, resolve to do it well.

Tinsel oft may glitter, but will not stand the test;

Pull yourselves together, boys, and do your level best.

Call a man hard names and he may prove soft enough to stand for it.

THE KITCHEN CABINET

I pray you O excellent wife, not to cumber yourself and me to get a rich dinner for this man or this woman who has alighted at our gate, nor a bed-chamber made ready at too great cost. These things if they are curious in, they may get for a dollar at any village. But let this stranger, if he will, in your looks, in your accent and behavior read your heart and earnestness, your thought and will, which he can not buy at any price in any village or city.—Emerson.

ORANGE POSSIBILITIES.

Oranges are always in season and are usually reasonable in price, so that they may be freely used as fresh fruit, or as dessert in combination with other materials.

Orange Washington Pie.—Cream together half a cupful of butter and one cupful of powdered sugar, adding when very light the grated rind and juice of one orange and one well-beaten egg; then stir in alternating half a cupful of milk and a cupful and a quarter of flour sifted with a teaspoonful of baking powder. Bake in two layer cake pans in a quick oven for 15 minutes. For the filling heat a small cupful of cream, add a tablespoonful of gelatin that has been soaked in a tablespoonful of cold water for five minutes, sweeten with a tablespoonful of sugar and flavor with the juice and rind of one orange; strain this into a bowl placed in ice water and whip with an egg beater, adding when quite stiff a cupful of whipped cream and half a cupful of chopped hickory nuts; spread this between the layers, heaping in a small pyramid on top.

Frozen Orange Pudding.—Prepare a custard by using a pint of milk, two eggs and two tablespoonfuls of sugar. Remove from the heat and flavor with the grated rind and juice of one orange. While this is cooling, peel two oranges and remove all of the white and seeds, making the pulp in small pieces, sprinkle liberally with powdered sugar and let stand. To the cold custard add a half pint of sweetened whipped cream and turn at once into the freezer, stirring in when half frozen the prepared orange pulp and a small cupful of grated macaroni crumbs; continue the freezing until very stiff and then pack in a melon mold. Unmold on a large platter and garnish with whipped cream and orange peel.

A GOOD FRIEND

A good friend stands by you when in need. Canfield people tell how Doan's Kidney Pills have stood the test. James Clay of Lisbon Street endorsed Doan's over five years ago and again confirms the story. Could you ask for more convincing testimony?

"At times I have pains in my back and sides. Other symptoms of kidney complaint come on, too. Whenever I have this trouble, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and receive immediate relief."

Mr. Clay gave the above statement October 24, 1911, and on April 1, 1917, he added: "Although I haven't had occasion to use Doan's for a year, I still have as much faith in them as when I first used and recommended them."

Price, 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Clay has twice publicly recommended. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.—adv.
